

CUT AND FILL TECHNIQUES

Cutting is removing materials to a predetermined level.

Filling is moving materials into an area to a predetermined level.

It is important to remember:

- When cleaning or cutting a ditch the front wheels should be tilted away from the ditch to compensate for slope.
- Avoid driving near the edge of a fill as it may collapse.

